What activities and experience have you had that is relevant to this course? (Put any work experience on radio, TV, magazines or newspapers that you have planned for the future here.)
What are your main leisure activities and interests? Why?
What qualities do you think are important for a magazine journalist?
Why do you think you would make a good journalist?
Why would you prefer to work on a magazine, rather than a newspaper?
If you could work on any magazine, what would it be?
On what magazine do you think your first job might be?
What magazines do you read regularly?
How did you hear about this course?

Finally, we want you to write a 450-word article, an interview with anyone interesting (the Prime Minister will score well). Those interviewing their flatmates or their parents (unless they happen to be especially interesting) are likely to receive a polite rejection. A similar fate awaits those who make up interviews or who interview non-famous bands. Tell us what magazine might publish such an article (and if you send in a question and answer interview, be certain that the magazine runs interviews in this style).

Send it with this completed application form and copies of any press cuttings you may have to Postgraduate Course, PMA Training, PMA House, Free Church Passage, St Ives, Cambs PE27 5AY
